

Before:

After:

Smith Gee Studio is currently working with the Winchester Downtown Program to renovate the facades of the historic buildings within a 9-block area around the Franklin County Courthouse Square. SGS is creating restorative schematic designs and construction documentation and providing construction administration to guide local contractors through the renovation process.

This facade renovation program continues the implementation of the Winchester Downtown Plan and is made possible through a grant awarded from the Courthouse Square Revitalization Act of Tennessee.

Before:

After:

SMITH
GEE
STUDIO